1.0 Executive Summary

Alternative medicine has been around for several years. There are several modalities used to treat ailments and diseases. Some common ones include acupressure, acupuncture, su-jok, water therapy, light therapy, and sound therapy. This research includes a holistic approach of treatment using acupressure and sujjok as the main modality combined with certain other aspects needed for complete healing. The focus is given to the emotional, spiritual, social, and mental health in addition to the physical ailment present with the patient. Solving the problem to the core requires treatment on all these phases and not just the physical aspect.

A unique process coined in this research is called MANTRA for treatment and healing. This holistic approach was experimented on 88 case studies documented in this research. The case studies consisted of real patients with physical ailments needing immediate treatment and care. The patients in the research were from all age groups from 8 years to 85 years old. Both male and female patients were studied against the acceptance of the MANTRA approach. Two aspects of the MANTRA approach stood out in most of the cases. The first being the importance of believing in the system and the body's ability to cure itself. The other important aspect is to accept the situation you are in and to be able to visualize the end state.

To summarize, the research gathered from the case studies points out the fact that excess heat in the body and solar plexus position plays a very important role in the wellness or illness prevention.

2.0 Abstract & Introduction

2.1 History and Origins of Alternate Medicine

Before we dive into the history of alternative medicine, it is important to understand the definition and its use in my hypothesis. Merriam-Webster defines Alternative Medicine as "any of various systems of healing or treating disease (such as chiropractic, homeopathy, or faith healing) not included in the traditional medical curricula of the U.S. and Britain. We can simply say that treatments that are used instead of traditional or conventional modern clinical methods can be categorized as alternative medicine. Generally, these practices dated back to the time predating Western medicine which is often referred to as allopathic medicine which is derived from biomedical approaches. Prior to the rise and use of modern medicine in the 19th century, medical practices were believed to use remedies made from naturally available substances including herbs. The history of alternative medicine is an interesting paradox and is linked to many diverse cultures in the way it was practiced. It is very difficult to date the origins of alternative medicine as these practices fell under the conventional medical practices available at that time. But, if we go back in history and trace the use of several of the forms of treatment and healing methods commonly labeled as alternative in today's definition, we can find their origins going back to the east as much as 5000 years. One such example can be found with the ancient Chinese Medicine which bases their concept on the balance of energy of the body and spirit. These principles are widely known and characterized under the Yin-Yang theory that we know today. Yin and Yang principles explain the use of opposing forces within our body that are integral to each other and the harmony between the two is extremely important to maintain the balance required to avert the onset of a disease. Practitioners looked at the patient's health and their lifestyle to ascertain where their life forces were out of balance before creating a treatment plan. Various methods were then used to restore the patient back to his normal good health. In the west, the history of alternative medicine goes back around 3000 years when treatments such as hydrotherapy were popular with the Romans and Greeks. It is believed that the ancient Greeks who were greatly influenced by the Babylonians were instrumental in bringing herbalism to the west given that they were less influenced by India and China. Hippocrates (c. 460-377 BC), famous Greek physician who is commonly referred to as the Father of Medicine, practiced this alternative medicine using herbs. During the Middle Ages, Monks in Europe studied and grew medicinal plants and translated many works on the subject from Arabic. Folk Healers also passed on their knowledge of healing through word of mouth, from Master to Apprentice. The understanding of the power, different plants have is ingrained in many native civilizations and has allowed man to understand and thrive in often challenging environments.

2.2 Holistic Philosophy of Alternative Medicines for well-being Alternative medicine has taken prime importance over the last 20 years given the benefits it has delivered. Many different modalities make up the portfolio of alternative or also called complementary medicine. In the traditional mainstream approach, there are several accepted forms of therapies that are accepted. These therapies include acupressure. acupuncture. avurveda. homeopathy. naturopathy and traditional Chinese or oriental medicine. Other forms of healing where touch has been used is also gaining popularity. These include massages, tai-chi, yoga and chiropractic treatments. Along with these practices, it is important to watch our diet or eating habits to overcome any deficiencies our body might have. These include dietary supplements, herbal medicine, and nutrition diets. Some people also believe in the use of external energy from objects and other forces to influence the internal flow of energy. These may include practices like reiki, electromagnetic therapy, light therapy, sound therapy, and Qigong. Mind also plays a very important role in alternative or complementary medicine. The power of mind is duly recognized by conventional practitioners. The relationship between mind and body is very subtle yet very powerful if harvested properly. Studies have shown that people have the potency to heal faster and better if they have good emotional and mental health. Meditation, biofeedback, and hypnosis are some of the mind therapies used in treatments. Our senses play a vital role in our overall health and well-being. Touch, sight, hearing, smell, and taste can affect one's overall health and condition. Some therapies that use our senses include art, dance, music, visualization, and guided imagery. The holistic approach of healing is the focus of my research. Treatment plans are individually customized based on the case handled. The basic structure of treatment revolves around a combined approach that uses all the above modalities. This approach not only provides treatment to the problem, but it also helps in healing of the body from inside. As a result, this approach may take longer compared to other traditional or complementary approaches. The whole person is involved in the treatment and not just the symptom of the disease. From a holistic point of view, even with a genetic predisposition to disease, it may be possible to reduce the risk by addressing and implementing system-wide healthy behaviors. The holistic approach indicates that you can maintain your health and well-being by implementing healthy choices and changes. A practitioner with a holistic approach can help address larger issues that may not be addressed at a regular checkup with your primary care doctor. Health care providers who practice holistic medicine view each patient as a whole and not just for the symptom they present. The patient's physical, mental, environmental, and spiritual aspects need to be addressed and kept in balance before any attempt at a cure can really work. Holistic doctors do not discount modern medicine or its treatments, but rather utilize these more traditional therapies in conjunction with holistic approaches. The healing occurs only if the patient actively participates and believes in the process. For example, a patient is best served when he or she is committed to making the changes necessary to improve their health. These patients are often not forced to the treatment but are willing to go thru the treatment.

Any medical approach that can help prevent a worsening of your condition, or improve it, is worth considering. Holistic medicine offers nonsurgical solutions that can be safe, effective, and less costly in the long run. Often, holistic therapies can help you maintain your health throughout your life. There is nothing that should prohibit you from implementing such positive changes.

4.0 Statement of Research Problems

4.1 Aim and Objective of Alternate Treatment Methods

Health is the birth right of every citizen in this universe. But the menace of spurious drugs, the dangerous side effects of numerous medicines, alarming figures of various diseases and above all costly medical expenses has remained a matter of serious concern for our majority of our people. So, it reminds us of the famous statement by Sri William Osler that "ONE OF THE FIRST DUTIES"

OF THE PHYSICIAN IS TO EDUCATE THE MASSES NOT TO TAKE MEDICINES."

Healing is natural, and the rest are palliative. Former Vice Chancellor of Manipal Medical University Dr. B.M. Hegde has recently stated in a Newspaper that "Modern Medicine has forgotten the essence of illness care" (The Hindu dtd. 7.11.10). He has further stated that "many simple methods which have stood the test of time are being forgotten now, thanks to the brain washing of the masses through the advertisement and media."

Health is a state where every cell is in synchronizes with other cells. Illness steps in when this communication breaks down. Einstein revealed that matter is not made out of matter, but made out of energy.

So, E=mc² (E=energy, m=mass, c=Speed of light)

Communication between cells can be monitored and documented through lights.

Thus, any treatment based on energy level only shall prevail in future.

Hence, Acupressure also changes the thinking of chemical matter (medicine system) to energy matter (meridian system).

Health is a natural status of wellbeing that can be maintained by simple practice of Acupressure, natural therapy and simplified yoga. To make this dream a reality, YANTRA Foundation (Yoga, Acupressure & Natural Therapy Research Foundation) attempts to create awareness among general public on Acupressure, Natural Therapy and Yoga.

4.2 Why Alternative Medicines is the best?

Benefits of Acupressure and Natural Therapy

- 1. Diagnosis made with Acupressure is equivalent to MRI.
- 2. Basic therapy of ancient India is a combination of Naturopathy, Yoga and Ayurveda.
- 3. Uses only thumb for diagnosis.
- 4. Uses pressure point for cure.
- 5. Means prevention, diagnosis, and cure.
- 6. 100% safe and no side effect
- No cost: no test and hence called it as 'Zero Cost Therapy/Low-Cost Therapy"
- 8. Can be used even on newborn babies
- 9. Can diagnosis and cure all types of diseases including cancer.

- 10. It is 'do it yourself' therapy.
- 11. Discover the treasure of good health in your hands and feet.
- 12. Acupressure does wonders for pain management (Spondylitis, lower back pain, knee pain, shoulders pain etc.)

5.0 Research Coverage

5.1 MANTRA© for healing, A Holistic Approach

Healing using a holistic approach provides the best form of treatment. A unique approach using all forms and methods is being described here. The approach is coined using an acronym called MANTRA© and is detailed in the table below. The modalities described below are all current practices offered individually by different practitioners. However, the uniqueness of this approach is to bring it all together in a structured way to provide basis for continued healing. As you know, each modality has its benefits, and they also work differently on different patients. The MANTRA© approach requires a blended combination of certain alternative medicine principles combined with some religious beliefs and practices with a renewed living to produce long lasting effect. There is not a straightforward formula for how the MANTRA © can be applied to cure illness. It depends on the mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual health of the patient. While physical illness can be apparent looking at the symptoms, mental, emotional, and spiritual health is hidden and is equally or if not more important. Hence, the MANTRA© approach also attempts to work on the areas that are not visible or seen with the symptoms delivering permanent cure. The focus of this approach is more on Wellness rather than Illness. The root cause of all medical issues is our underlying health and stability. While diagnosing a condition the patient often gets treated with the apparent issue and in some cases, it may get down one level deep in determining the root cause of the problem. However, the MANTRA approach focuses on several layers deep and uses a standard problem-solving approach to determine the root cause of the issue. This is where the underlying health is looked at to strengthen the foundation.

Illustration of the MANTRA© approach is given below.

Table 1 – MANTRA Concept

5.1.1 M1 - Mind and Body Control

Any form of treatment using alternate medicine requires your mind's participation and total acceptance. Before approaching this method, one should understand the way your brain functions. Brain is like a repository of information where things are processed like it is a supercomputer or an atomic reactor. Just like how electricity runs through the wires, our brain also produces what we call as Bioelectricity that run through our nervous system. The proper flow if this bioelectricity throughout the body is equally important as compared to the flow of blood. The five basic elements wood, fire, earth, metal, and water along with the 7 endocrine glands are controlled by the flow of the bioelectricity. The correct proportion or balance of these elements is essential for the wellbeing which in turn assists in eliminating several diseases. Bioelectricity generates the life force or chetana that controls the 5 basic elements in our body. The food we intake plays a great role in creating the positive and negative energy governing the life force. Bioelectricity creates energy that flows through our meridians and delivers the life force to all parts of our body. When a person comes down with a disease, this flow of energy or life force is obstructed or blocked leading to collection of toxins at that point. To facilitate the alternative medicine, this blockage should be removed. The participation of the mind is critical in breaking down the blockages and to regain the flow of chetana or life force to the affected part.

Researchers have shown a distinct connection between the way our body feels to the way our mind thinks. Positive thinking promotes a healthy mindset which allows the better flow of chetana that assists in alternative treatments. Mind control can help I the following ways:

- Alternative therapies work more effective if you believe in them and want them to work. The influence of mind in medicine is already defined by the placebo effect.
- Focusing on the bigger picture in life will always assist in the treatment as the patient's attention is not towards the symptom but towards a better living.
- 3. Auto suggestions or affirmation is very important part of the healing process. Our mind often blames us for things that we don't have control of. This aggravates the situation and makes it harder to focus on the bigger picture.
- 4. Being positive and optimistic boots the self-confidence which in turn boots your immune system. You become what your mind thinks of you and staying positive helps the flow of life force.
- 5. Always dream of the cure before the treatment ever starts. Your mind should be able to visualize the end form which promotes the want to get better. This also increases the positive thinking.
- Meditation often controls the mind when it begins to wander in several directions. Mind control using meditation can help reduce stress.

5.1.2 M2 - Meditation Principles and Methods

There are several different ways one can meditate. One such simple technique is to sit in a spot where you are free from noise and disturbance. Clasp your hands together and sit in sukhasana as described in the yoga section of this material. The prayer given below can be used for meditation.

Fig 1 – Sukhasana posture

Prayer for meditation:

- Light a small candle or a lamp in a quiet place and sit in front of the light.
- Take a deep breath and remember how beautiful the light is warm, soft, and alive.
- Now close your eyes and imagine that this flame is inside your head in between your eyebrows. Concentrate on the flame and the light it produces.
- Move the beautiful flame all the way down to your heart and imagine that your heart is like a flower which is slowly opening its petals.
- Now the flame settles in the very center of the flower. It warms and brightens your heart. It takes away all your sorrows and fills it with love. The sun in your heart is shining so brightly that the rays are so powerful that they chase away the clouds in your head.
- Now, imagine that this light fills your mouth and goes on to your tongue. It takes away all hasty and hurtful words. The light will help you use kind and gentle words.
- Imagine that the light fills your ears, and it gets rid of all the bad things you have heard. It will help you hear good and true words.

- Imagine that the light fills your eyes, and it may get rid of all the bad things your eyes may have seen. It will help you see what is good and beautiful.
- Imagine that the light is now filling the whole of your head it will chase away all bad thoughts and it will help you think positive thoughts.
- Imagine that the light is sending light in your arms the light will help your hands to do what is good and right and you will be able to help other people.
- Imagine that the light fills your leg and takes you to places where you can give love and joy. The sun in your heart is shining so brightly that it wants to share its love with everybody.
- Open yourselves up and imagine that you are sending the light full of love to your family members, to your friends, to your enemies and to everyone in the word. Proceed slowly and try to feel the love that exists everywhere. Everything is light and everything is one.
- Bring your thoughts back to the room where you are seated. Stretch your arms and legs and open your eyes. You are wide awake now. Remember the loving light inside you and in everything as you go through your day. Have a wonderful day.

5.1.3 M3 - Mudras Techniques and Yoga Asanas Meditation Mudras

The 5 basic elements can be controlled effectively through pranayama mudras. Through different combinations of your fingers, mudras can control and cure many ailments. They can be done in any siting position. One can start meditation with the proper mudra for 10 minutes daily and can be extended to 30 minutes.

Meditation mudra –

Fig 2 – Chin Mudra

 Chin mudra - Touch the thumb with the index finger and stay in this position for the prescribed time. Benefits of this include increase in brain power, improved concentration, and memory gain. Reduces stress and cures problems related to sleeplessness.

Fig 3 – Vayu Mudra

 Vayu mudra – Keep the index finger on the base of the thumb and stay in this position for the prescribed time. This benefits cure towards arthritis, gout, Parkinson's disease, and improved blood circulation through the body.

 Shunya mudra – Keep the thumb on the middle finger at the mount of Venus as shown. This will help in ear problems and vertigo.

Fig 4 – Shunya Mudra

 Prithivi mudra – Put the ring finger and thumb together as shown. This increases the life force or chetana and gives peace of mind.

Fig 5 – Prithvi Mudra

Fig 6 – Varun Mudra

 Varun mudra – Put the tips of the thumb and little finger together as shown. These cures impurities of blood and assists in skin problems. Also helps in gastric problems.

- Surya mudra Bend the ring finger and press the thumb on the second fold as shown. This creates heat in the body and helps with digestion.
- Fig 7 Surya Mudra

7. Pran mudra – Bend the little finger and ring finger so that their tips meet the thumb as shown.
This also increases the life force in your body and cures nervousnesses, and fights fatigue.

Fig 9 – Linga Mudra

 Linga mudra – Clasp both the hands and interlock them as shown with the thumb extended out. This helps resist common cold attacks and burns the excess phlegm in the body

Yoga Asanas

Asana is a body posture or position that is performed to induce a specific benefit through improved flow of energy. The term asana is derived from the ancient language of Sanskrit and is widely used in alternative medicine. These postures have been defined from time memorial and can be easily done by anyone without much effort. Asanas help in flexing the body muscles and increases the flow of blood or circulation in the body. We will describe some asanas for reference:

Fig 10 – Sukhasana

 Sukhasana – This is also called the happy posture and is easily done. In this posture, you sit with your legs crisscrossed and tucked inside the opposite thighs. Care should be taken to ensure that your spine is vertically straight. Place the hands on your knees and breath normally or gently.

Fig 11 – Naukasana

2. Naukasana – This is referred to as the V-pose or the boat posture. In this asana, you sit and extend your legs in-front of you while leaning back some to provide adequate balance. Stretch your hands towards your feet as shown.

Fig 12 – Dhanurasana

Dhanurasana – This is referred to as the Bow posture. In this, you lie on your stomach with your hands on your feet and pull it backwards as shown.
 Your body ends up looking like a bow with your abdomen stretched.

Fig 13 – Vakrasana

4. Vakrasana – This is often referred to as the twisted posture where your top half is twisted compared to the bottom. The right foot is placed up on the left thigh and the hands should be over the head. Spine should be kept straight.

5.2.1 A1 – Activation of pressure points using acupressure and acupuncture

Alternative medicine uses the flow of energy or vital force in the body as described earlier. Our body has a built-in mechanism to maintain and repair areas of concern and this is done using a technique popularly known as acupressure. In this technique the body is subjected to application of pressure on specific points located on your hands and feet. Our body is made of the 5 elements water, fire, air, earth and ether which is controlled by the electricity called bio-electricity or chetana as described earlier. The life force flows through our body through lines known as meridians which run from the tip of each finger to all over the body. Our hand consists of several points known as trigger or activation points that act as a switch when it comes to the flow of life force. See figure below showing the trigger points located on our palms.

Fig 14 – Acupressure Trigger Points

5.2.2 A2 – Activation of critical energy points and Chakras

There are several ways to identify the critical energy points in your body. One can use the 7 chakras that were first mentioned in an ancient historic text originating from India. The word chakra stands for "wheel" and points to the energy points in our body. These energy centers or chakras should be aligned and should stay open for proper flow of chetana. The 7 chakras control the body and mind.

1. Crown Chakra

- 2. Third Eye Chakra
- 3. Throat Chakra
- 4. Heart Chakra
- 5. Solar Plexus Chakra
- 6. Sacral Chakra
- 7. Base or Root Chakra

Chakras are activated by deep and conscious breaths where the energy is directed and flowed thru them. This practice of balancing the Chakras will open the flow of Chetana and bring harmony to your mind body and soul.

The body also has several critical points that should be activated daily for wellness purposes. Applying pressure stimulates the pressure point and sends a signal to the mind or brain to clear energy blocks in the meridians. This technique prevents the accumulation of toxins which prevents the flow of chetana through the body.

There are 31 points in our body that should be used to apply pressure as shown below.

| 1 | Press on the middle of your right forearm for 2 minutes. This activates your heart meridian and enhances the flow of blood. | Fig 16 – Point #1 |
|---|---|-------------------|
| 2 | Bend your right arm and apply pressure for 30 seconds at the point right above your elbow. This activates the large intestine meridian and helps with the elimination of toxins from the body. | Fig 17 – Point #2 |
| 3 | With your palm facing up, apply pressure for 30 seconds to the point 1 inch below the wrist line. This activates point #16 lymph glands and helps with the cell regeneration. | Fig 18 – Point #3 |

| 5 | Apply pressure for 30 seconds to the point that is 1 inch below your right knee. This activates the stomach meridian and assists in the digestion of food. | Fig 20 – Point #5 |
| 6 | Apply pressure for 30 seconds to the point that is 1 inch above the ankle bone. This activates the urinary bladder meridian and assists in the passage of toxins via urine. This point also activates the spleen meridian and assists in the filtration of blood. | Fig 21 – Point #6 |

| 7 | Apply pressure for 30 seconds to the point that is 1 inch below the ankle bone. This activates the spleen meridian and kidney meridians along with male and female reproductive organs. | Fig 22 – Point #7 |

5.2.3 A3 – Aqua Therapy or Detoxification

Our body consists of 2/3rd portion of water, which is one of the 5 main elements. Water should be used to flush out toxins from the body. It also increases the circulation of blood and lymph, which in turn increases the elimination of waste.

By this process, we increase the oxygen supply in the body. A simple method of preparing water to detox is described here. It is often recommended that you drink about 8 glasses of water a day. In order to help with the detoxification, one can add the following ingredients:

- Cucumber and mint
- Lemon and ginger
- Blackberry and Orange
- Lemon and Cayenne pepper
- Watermelon and Mint
- Grapefruit and Rosemary

Add the above ingredients to water and leave it overnight or for a few hours. The ingredients can be chopped and added to cold or hot water. Leaving them for a few hours before drinking it will allow the infusion. Remove the ingredients when you are ready to drink the water.

Detox water can also be prepared by using two spoons of apple cider vinegar in 16 oz of water. Leave this for 30 minutes and drink it first thing in the morning in empty stomach. Detox water boosts the immune system, increases the energy levels and balanced the body pH levels.

5.3.1 N1 – Naturopathy using herbs and supplements

The science of naturopathy using certain herbs and plant extracts have proven very effective in improving the overall health when you are treating a particular disease. Long before modern medicine, the ancient Greeks used a variety of spices and herbs for their healing properties. Hippocrates (460-377 BCE) used saffron, cinnamon, thyme, coriander, and other plants as treatments, many of which people still using today as holistic remedies for fevers, aches and pains, and other ailments.

Purification of your blood and to oxygenate it plays a vital role in wellness. A simple purification method is described here. Take 10 leaves each of Neem (Azadirachta indica), Tulsi or Holy Basil (Ocimum tenuflorum) and Bilva or Bael fruit (Aegle marmelos) and sun dry them for couple of days until it is not damp anymore. Grind them as fine as possible to make a powder. This mixture is called Q-mix for reference. Mix 1 teaspoon of Q-mix powder in 8oz of water and consume it on empty stomach first thing in the morning. Repeat this for a period of 30 days until the cleansing process is complete. Allow a 10-day gap before starting another cleansing process. Q-mix helps in cleaning the blood and increases the oxygen content.

There are several other herbs that can be consumed to maintain the health and wellness. Turmeric, Ginger, Cumin, Peppermint, Echinacea, Cinnamon, Chili powder, Parsley, Oregano, and Cardamon can be consumed daily. An easiest way is to put them in water and boil it for 15 minutes to extract the juices. People may experience some benefits or health improvements from incorporating herbs and spices into their diet but should not depend upon them solely for full treatment of conditions.

5.3.2 N2 – Nature Cure and Sunlight Therapy

Following the general rules of Nature will assist in curing the disease. This is done with the help of the 5 natural elements of Nature – Water, Air, Fire, Earth, and Ether.

Water – As indicated earlier, water helps in detoxifying the body. Drink plenty of water 8 to 10 glasses every day beginning with the first one on empty stomach. This should preferably be warm water as this will help in excreting undigested or leftover food in your stomach. Water can also be left overnight in a copper vessel and then consumed later. The water should be boiled and cooled in the copper vessel which infuses the minerals.

Air – Intake of fresh air every day is a key factor in increasing in oxygen content in the blood. Simple breathing exercises like pranayama. Inhaling through the right nostril and exhaling thru the left increases the heat in the body. This is called Surya pranayama. Doing it the other way using the left nostril for inhalation increases coolness in the body and is called Chandra pranayama. The sequence can be alternated easily by inhaling from the right and exhaling from the left. One important to note is that the inhaling should be short, and exhaling should be much longer. This helps in pushing out the toxic air stuck in the bottom of our lungs.

Sunlight – The 7 colors of the sun made up of violet, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange, and red effect the body in different ways. The first three colors provide a cooling effect while the last three provides heat. It is advisable to stand outside in the morning at a time earlier to sunrise to absorb the rays. Deep breathing can be done to increase the oxygen content of the blood.
5.3.3 N3 – Nutrition and Balanced Diet

Alternative therapy focuses heavily on one's diet and eating habits. It is believed that your medicine is in what you eat. The stomach is a very important component of our body as several disorders begin from there. It is very important to understand the importance of eating the right amount of food at the right time. It should also be noted that you must never eat till you are full and cannot consume anymore. It is recommended to take 75% of your intake so the body can process adequately. 60 to 70% of your diet should constitute carbohydrates, 10 to 15% proteins and the remaining 10 to 20% from fat. Healthy and balanced eating increases energy, improves the way our body functions and strengthens the immune system. A proper mix of proteins, fiber, antioxidants is essential to improve body functions.

Healthy eating involves in eating 6 small portions of intake in a day. Breakfast should be taken before 8am in the morning. A small snack at 10.30am to appease the hunger. This snack should be healthy consisting of vegetables or fruit. Lunch should be taken no later than 12.30pm. Eat until you are about 60% full at lunch to allow proper digestion. You can eat another small snack like nuts or a protein bar at around 3.30pm. Dinner should be taken before 7pm and followed by another snack like milk and cookies at 9.30pm if needed. Eating smaller portions but frequently allows the body to process completely. The digestive juices produced by out body should be consumed properly to digest the food intake. Fasting one meal a week is recommended. Plenty of water should be consumed throughout the day. On an average 64 oz is recommended as this forces your body to expel unwanted liquid.

5.4.1 T1 – Therapeutic healing using light, seed, heat, sound, and aroma

Light plays a very important role in the healing process. It is given in our ancient texts that all living beings get their energy from the sun which is the primary source of light. The colors of the sun can also be used for therapeutic effect based on their properties.

Violet – Produces heat in the body and can be used to treat problems related to bones, bone marrow, certain kinds of eye diseases like cataract and blindness.

Indigo – This color is good to treat problems associated with eyes, nose, throat, paralysis related to the face, diseases of the lungs like asthma, tuberculosis. It also helps with the nervous system disorders

Blue – This color is often used to treat whooping cough, any disease associated with excess heat in the body. This color is also used as a good antiseptic.

Green – Heart problems related to low and high blood pressure, skin related issues, certain types of cancer can be cured with the help of green light therapy.

Yellow – This color is often used to treat disorders of the stomach or digestive system, spleen, and liver. Diabetes can be controlled using this color.

Orange – This color is used for long treatment of asthma, bronchitis, throat related problems, gout, kidney problems and brain related diseases like epilepsy.

Red – Red is always associated with our blood so it helps with anemia, arthritis, paralysis and general weakness of the body including lethargy.

The light therapy can be done using a 60 to 100 W bulb and by directing it to the affected area for 15 minutes per day. Care should be taken to ensure the distance of the light source from the affected area. Typically, 18 inches is recommended for safer operation.

Seed therapy – The use of seeds is very popular in Sujok where specific types of seeds are tied to the acupressure points on your hands and feet. The seed is left on the point for a period of 10 to 2 hours and is believed to stimulate the area to induce healing through energy concentration. Common seeds used for this type of therapy includes mustard, fenugreek, peppercorns, black pepper. A more detailed guide to which seed to use is given in Sujok therapy.

Heat therapy – This is commonly known as thermotherapy where heat is applied to the affected area to get relief from pain. Heat can be applied using a warm cloth, bottle filled with warm water or heating pads available in the market. Application if heat assists in relaxing the muscles and tissues that are otherwise tender. Relieving spasms, inflammation and edema are common reasons to use heat therapy. This also increases the blood circulation to the affected area and promotes faster healing.

Sound Therapy – Sound healing involves the use of vibrations generated in various frequencies to relax the mind and body. Instruments like tuning forks, gongs, singing bowls are often used to generate sound with a particular frequency. This helps in modulating the operating frequency of the brain which assists in improving the circulation of blood used in curing certain ailments like blood pressure. Sound healing technique does not heal anything directly but assists greatly in the well-being of an individual. As a result, one stays positive after this therapy is administered.

5.4.2 T2 – Touch Therapy and Massage Techniques

Touch therapy involves a wide variety of energy healing techniques that is supplemented along with acupressure. The primary operating principle lies in the fact that the body has a natural energy field that is controlled by the mind and plays an important role in the well-being of the individual. The proper flow of energy is important to reduce any imbalances that can contribute to illness and pain. The flow of energy is altered or modulated by the practitioner with the help of a healing touch or a therapeutic touch. In this therapy, the hand is placed a few inched from the affected area and the mind is used to direct the folw of energy.

On the other hand, massage techniques involve the application of pressure to the affected area. Some common types of massage techniques include kneading, rubbing, tapping, and shaking. Hot stones are also used during these sessions. There are basically 5 types of massage movements.

Effleurage, long gliding strokes are used on the affected area.

Petrissage, is used with kneading, rolling, wringing the area.

Friction can also be applied where needed to generate heat at the affected area. Tapotement uses percussive strokes of the hand in rhythmically fashion to stimulate nerves and muscles.

Lastly, vibration refers to rocking, shaking movements done to the affected part or the entire body. These movements can be slower to begin and increase with time.

5.4.3 T3 – Traditional Practices including Ayurveda, Homeopathy

Ayurveda is one of the world's oldest holistic medicines practiced all over the world for more than 3000 years now. Ayurveda is based on the belief that our health and wellness depends on the delicate balance between the mind, body, and the spirit. If this balance is disturbed, the body has the potential to fall sick. The five basic elements found in the universe: space, air, fire, water, and ether are believed to be responsible for the control of three forms of life forces in our body. These life forces, Vata dosha (related to space and air), Pitta dosha (related to fire and water) and Kapha dosha (related to water and earth) govern the proper operation of our body. A proper mix of the three doshas is very critical for the body's well-being. Vata dosha controls the mind, breathing, blood flow, heart functions and the ability to get rid of waste from the body. This is believed to be the main life force in the body. Pita dosha controls digestion, metabolism, and the proper working of certain hormones. Finally, Kapha dosha controls the immune system, muscle growth and body strength. Ayurvedic treatment starts with the proper cleansing of the body to ensure that the undigested food is eliminated immediately. This helps in restoring the harmony and balance in the body.

Homeopathy is also based on the belief that the body can cure itself. The use of certain natural substances like plants and minerals in small quantities forms the basic treatment plan. These substances stimulate the body and helps in the healing process. The doctrine of homeopathy lies in the fact that the drugs are effective which produces symptoms like the symptoms caused by the disease that is being treated. This treatment is not advisable for all patients, and it can lead to aggravations.

5.5.1 R1 – Reflexology, Relaxation, Reduction of Stress

Reflexology is the science where pressure is applied to certain areas on the feet and hands. The theory behind reflexology is that areas of the foot correspond to organs and systems of the body. Pressure applied to the foot is believed to bring relaxation and healing to the corresponding area of the body. Foot reflexology is often done along with relaxation techniques that help in reduction of stress. The primary goal of relaxation is to develop a peaceful sense of mind that decreases the effects of stress on the mind and body. There are several types of relaxation techniques and the most popular one is the autogenic in nature. In this technique you are asked to focus on a visual image in a peaceful setting. You can also repeat certain words or suggestions in your mind that helps you to calm down and reduce the operating frequency of the brain/mind. The other method is progressive relaxation where you focus on one part or muscle of the body to slowly release the tension associated with it. Visualization or focusing your mind on certain images or patterns are also used to create the calming effect in the mind. The sense organs are often used to increase the stimulation of the mind. Deep breathing during relaxation can also regulate the flow of energy in the body. Some common benefits of relaxation include slower heart rate, lowering of blood pressure, improved digestion, reduction of anger and control of emotions, increase of blood flow to areas of chronic pain and reduction of stress. Relaxation also helps with positive thinking.

5.5.2 R2 – Religious Practices including Community Service

Being religious is strongly associated with a better overall mental health and wellbeing. This leads to fewer symptoms related to anxiety and depression.

People with strong religious beliefs and practices often tend to enjoy the benefits of social support. Spiritual well-being happens to have a positive influence on most aspects of health. It is found to have a significant relationship between spiritual existential aspect of well-being and both physical and moral aspects of quality of life.

Religious practices include rituals, sermons, commemorations or venerations of deities and saints, sacrifices, celebration of festivals, feasts, prayer sessions to name a few. If community service is added to the religious practices, it increases the positive thinking and creates a purpose for life.

5.5.3 R3 – Rigor, Rhythm and Routine

Any alternative medicine requires the rigor, rhythm and routine that needs to be followed. The body is expecting the activity when it is subjected to treatment. Alternative medicine requires the patient to follow the routine and the rhythm set by the practitioner. The body has a natural rhythm that helps in optimizing wellness.

- 1. Best time to wake up 5am to 7am
- 2. Best time to nourish the body 7am to 9am
- 3. Best tine to nourish the heart 11am to 1pm
- 4. Refueling time 3pm to 5pm
- 5. Time to connect 7pm to 9pm

- 6. Deep rest period 11pm to 1am
- 7. Recovery time 1am to 3am
- 8. Recharge period 3am to 5am

5.6.1 A1 – Affirmation

The following affirmation can be practiced daily.

Oh lord, I thank you for being part of my life and I will accept whatever you give me.

I realize that I did nothing to create this condition and I am willing to release and accept this pattern in my consciousness which is responsible for this.

All things happen for a purpose and reason. My experience also had a purpose and I have learned form it. I am grateful for the lessons my past has taught me.

I am willing to let go all the tensions, fear, negative emotions, sadness, guilt, and physical sickness. I am at peace with my past. I move forward by letting go the past. I choose to forgive myself and others, I am grateful and happy to experience whatever God decides for me. Tomorrow will be a great day filled with joy and amazing happiness. As I wake up the next day, my body mind and soul will rejuvenate and prepare for the best.

My family is my greatest wealth and strength. I will give all my love so it can be multiplied. Every cell in my body vibrates with HIS love, compassion, energy, and good health. I am always at peace. I will overcome all obstacles on my path with ease and will be rewarded with renewed inner strength. It is not the events of life but how we respond to them that defines the joy and success of life. With the grace of the divine bliss, I will enjoy good health, long life, enough wealth, peace, and prosperity.

May be divine energy be my guide and my protector, during the day and night always and in all places.

5.6.2. A2 – Acceptance & Visualize the End State

In alternative medicine, it is very important that the patient accept the current situation and not blame on themselves or others. Acceptance comes with the realization that everything happens for a reason, and you have done everything right in your capacity. Accept the treatment with full belief in the system.

It is very important to visualize the end state of the treatment where you are well and fine again. Visualization is simply a technique for creating a mental image of a future event. When we visualize our desired outcome, we begin to "see" the possibility of achieving it. When this happens, we are motivated and prepared to pursue the treatment with full trust in the system. Visualization can be done in two distinct ways. The first method is end-result visualization and involves envisioning yourself completely cured of the ailment. To do this, one can create a detailed mental image of the desired state using all your senses. You can write this down on a piece of paper and see it every day. You can also post a picture of yourself completely cured of the ailment and see it every day. The second type of visualization is process visualization. It involves envisioning each of the steps or actions you are taking to get to the final stage you desire. Focus on completing each of the steps you need to achieve your goal, but not on the overall goal itself.

5.6.3 A3 – Always Trust on the Almighty

Everything happens with God's will, and you need to have trust in HIM. Without trust and faith no treatment will work successfully. Being positive is the first step to a successful treatment.

6.0 Materials and Methods

Before starting the treatment, the patient must be reviewed as a whole unit by looking at their hands and feet that are corresponding to the organs in the body. For every problem or ailment, there is a disturbed balance which can be identified on the reflex point on the hand or feet. Using reflexology or applying pressure to the corresponding points on the patient's hand, the diagnosis of the problem can be done easily. The same point can be used to treat the ailment. When the Acupressure points are stimulated with pressure, it triggers the release of 'endorphins' which are the neuro chemicals that relieve pain. As a result, pain is blocked and the flow of blood and oxygen to the affected area is increased. When a point is pressed, the muscle yields to the finger pressure enabling the fibers to elongate and relax. This results in flow of blood and toxins accumulated in the body will be released and eliminated. Increased circulation also brings more oxygen and other nutrients to the affected areas. The body's resistance to illness is increased which then promotes a longer, healthier, and more vital life. When the blood and bio-electrical energy circulates properly through the body, an individual feels a sense of harmony, health, and well-being. This causes the muscles to relax and thus promotes internal self-healing.

An acupressure point has two identities. A local point is where pain or stress is felt when it is stimulated by the probe. That same point of pain can also be relieved from a distant point in the part of body which is called a trigger point. This triggering mechanism works through a human electrical channel called a meridian. The meridians are the path-ways that connect the acupressure points to each other as well as to the internal organs.

Just as blood vessels carry the blood that nourishes the body physically, the meridians aredistinct channels that circulate electrical energy through the body. They are thought to be a part of master communication system of universal life energy, connecting the organs with all sensory, physiological, and emotional aspects of the body. This physical network of energy also contains key points that one can use to deepen one's spiritual awareness as he heals himself. As the stimulation of one point can send a healing message to other parts of the body, each acupressure point can benefit a variety of complaints and symptoms. There are certain tonic points on the body surface which when stimulatedimprove one's condition and maintains general health. They strengthen the overall body system and fortify various internal organs and vital systems of the body.

Before starting with the reflex treatment, it is important for the practitioner to check the condition of the feet. The feet can revel several factors which help to recognize the problem areas in the body. If there is callus and it is uneven across the feet, it is possible to find out the source of imbalance in the body. Skin should be observed for variations in color or tone. If bright red color skin is seen on the feet, it indicated too much blood circulation. Dry or flaky skin on the surface of the feet indicates lack of energy or chetana or life force.

A typical treatment session is described here.

- 1. When the patient arrives, their biometrics is measured.
 - a. This includes their blood pressure & vitals
- 2. A treatment form is completed with relevant details.
 - a. Name, address
 - b. Address and contact details
- 3. The detailed description of the problem is recorded.
- Diagnosis starts with applying pressure on the hands to Points 1 through 38 as shown in this figure below.
 - a. Pressure is applied to each point using an acupressure pin and the patient's reaction to pain is recorded.
 - b. Pressure is increased if pain is recoded to see the tolerance level.Higher the pain level, higher the problem anticipated
- 5. If pain is experienced on a particular point, it is recorded on the form in the appropriate box.
- 6. Any special treatment notes regarding the treatment are recorded.
 - a. Check for solar plexus alignment as shown below:
 - i. Align line #1 on both hands as shown
 - ii. Check to see if line #3 is aligned on the little finger as shown.If they are not aligned, then solar plexus needs correction.Refer to solar plexus correction methods.

Fig 40 – Solar plexus checking method

- b. Check for palms to see if they are dry or wet/moist
 - i. If palm is moist then no excess heat in the body
 - ii. If palm is dry and rough, excess heat in the body and it must be removed. Refer to instructions on how to remove excess heat from the body.
- 7. General treatment consists of the following recommendations:
 - a. Consumption of charged water per guidelines 1 liter minimum per day
 - b. Release of excess heart from the body if needed
 - c. Alignment of solar plexus if needed
 - d. Activation of endocrine glands points on the hands
 - e. Purification of blood using cleansers
 - f. Breathing exercises

- Specific acupressure treatments are recommended based on the ailment.
 This consists of applying pressure to the corresponding points on the hands 2 to 3 times a day for 60 seconds each.
- 9. Yoga and Meditation recommendations include the following sessions:
 - a. Pranayama
 - b. Kapalabathi
 - c. Basthrika and Anulom Vilom
 - d. Meditation sessions
 - e. Affirmation practice
- 10. Sujok treatment is then administered to the hands based on the ailment.
 - a. Pressure is applied to the thumb to activate the brain
 - b. Locate the exact point for treatment on the hand that corresponds to the ailing part in the body. Stimulate this point for 30 seconds with the probe. After 30 seconds, release pressure for 10 seconds and reapply for another 30 seconds with increased pressure. This can be repeated for the third time if the patient is prepared to take the increased pressure.
 - c. Apply roller to the corresponding point on the hand to stimulate the flow of energy.
 - d. According to the specification, apply moxa herbs for the ailments to the points on the hand. Moxa herbs are used to create artificial heat in the limbs, joints which helps in the increased flow of blood.
 - e. Application of needles on the corresponding points for 10 minutes.
 - f. Application of seeds per specifications and leaving this overnight.

11. TENS stimulator is used on the affected area. This generates a transcutaneous electrical pulse that is sent through the skin to start the stimulation of the body to release pain killers or endorphins. This is done typically for 30 minutes and helps with stopping the pain signals to the brain. The intensity and the frequency of the electrical pulse can be controlled based on the degree of the pain.

The following precautions should be taken while treating a patient.

- If the patient's hand is moist or wet, it is advisable to use less pressure on the hands. This indicated the intensity of the ailment.
- However, if the patient feels shivering or cold spells, the treatment should not be continued at that time. Please comfort the patient by keeping them warm.
- The patient should not have consumed any solid foods 2 hours before the treatment. If solids were consumed, treatment should be done after 2 hours.
- Acupressure treatment should be avoided if the patient is pregnant, and it is after the first trimester.
- Check to make sure that the patient is not very ill or is taking heavy doses of steroids and prescription medicines.
- Caffeine, meat, and spicy foods should be avoided during the length of the treatment. This improves the effect of alternative treatments.

Process to check solar plexus:

- In the morning, on an empty stomach, lie down on your back and using the index finger or thumb apply pressure to your naval area. You should feel a throbbing sensation which follows your heartbeat. This shows the correct position of your solar plexus.
- Lie flat on your back with your legs stretched straight. Bring the toes together and check to see if they are on the same height. If both toes are at the same level, then your solar plexus is aligned and does not need correction.

Process to correct solar plexus:

- When you are lying flat on your back early in the morning, push the throbbing sensation as indicated above towards the center of the naval cavity.
- Press the naval cavity downwards for 10 times while lying in the above position.
- When the patient is lying on their back with the legs extended, pull both the big toes upwards while holding the leg steady.
- 4. Light a small tealight candle and place it on your naval. Light the candle and cover it with a glass as shown in the figure. The air inside the glass will be consumed by the flame which creates a suction pressure on the naval. This vacuum created on the naval will assist in solar plexus correction.
- 5. Lie down flat on the back and keep both your arms on the sides and on the ground. Lift both legs simultaneously and bring them to a 90-degree position. Keep it in this position for 10 seconds before bringing it down

Repeat this 10 times a day until solar plexus correction is achieved.

Process to remove excess heat from the body:

- Take 1 spoon of Harde powder (termialia chebula) with ½ spoon of sugar on empty stomach for 10 days
- 2. Soak 15 whole black peppers and 2 spoons of sugar and blend them with some water. Add 16 oz of water and drink it on empty stomach
- 3. Take 5 black pepper with 10 black raisins with some water on empty stomach

f. Patients with Pain Management versus Health issues

Based on the above data presented, the following observations are made.

- Patient population consisted of 60% females to 40% males
- Treatment period was from 2013 to 2020 and a total of 88 cases observed to collect the data for analysis
- Patients between the age group 30 to 40 were most receptive to this MANTRA© treatment model
- Excess heat in the body contributed significantly to patients' wellness
 - Greater effect can be seen on cases above 40 years of age
 - Females tend to have higher percentage of issues with excess heat in the body compared to males. 67.9% for females compared to 51.4% males
 - Excess heat in the body must be controlled
- Solar Plexus of patients between the age of 30 and 60 were not contributing significantly to their wellness
 - Patients with age 50 and above seem to have better solar plexus and did not require any correction
- The average number of sessions required per patient was at 2.45 based on the sample size of 88 patients over a 6-year period
- Patients needing pain management were successfully treated with this MANTRA© model compared to general health issues
- Patients in general do not follow all the recommendations provided during the sessions. Females were more receptive to the alternative medicine treatment compared to males treated.
- General tips of wellness include the following 8 conditions:

- Timely elimination of waste from the body Good bowl movements
- No excess weight in the body
- Clear skin without pimples or acme
- Feeling energetic throughout the day
- Experiencing a strong sense of hunger
- No aches and pain in the body
- Having deep and restful sleep at night
- Always feeling positive
- To maintain good health and wellness, the following should be practiced every day.
 - Press both the palms each for 5 minutes. Basically, you are applying pressure to both sides of your palms to activate all the trigger points.
 - For ages 40 and above, apply pressure on the center of the right arm for 2 minutes.
 - Activate your endocrine glands.
 - Use a foot roller and apply pressure to the soul of the feet for 5 minutes.
 - Drink 1 glass of warm water on your empty stomach. This assists in proper bowl movement and prevents constipation.
 - Drink 1 cup of green juice and add 1 spoon of honey to it.
 - Drink 1 glass of fresh fruit juice.
 - Check your solar plexus and correct if needed.
 - Maintain positive thoughts.

• Eat only when you are hungry and do not eat until you are full.

9.0 Thanks

- Special thanks to my father-in-law Mr. Baram Rajamanickam for instilling the interest in me to pursue the field of alternative medicine.
- All my patients who agreed to work with me as a case study for my treatment method validation.
- Professor Ravindran of YANTRA Foundation, Bangalore, India for teaching me the basics of acupressure and relevant techniques.
- Dr. Pradeep Sharma of International Su Jok Acupuncture Association, New Delhi, India for teaching and certifying me in the art of Sujok therapy.
- Dr. B.R Choudhary and Mr. P.P. Sharma of Acupressure Research, Training & Treatment Institute, Jodhpur, India for helping me successfully complete the Masters Diploma in Acupressure Therapy.

11.0 Appendices

Appendix A

There are several forms of yoga prescribed by different practices. The one listed here is called Simplified Physical Exercises using Kundalini Yoga techniques as formulated by Sri. Vethathri Maharishi.

Simplified Physical Exercises

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1. All these exercises should be done 30 minutes after consuming any liquid (water included) and 2 1/2 hours after a meal.
- 2. The exercises should be done without any jerk and must remain smooth and graceful.
- 3. Wait for 10 minutes after completing the exercises to eat or drink.
- Always keep a sheet for insulation between you and the floor (carpet included).
- The sequence is very important. If you skip a step do not come back to do it. Move forward and make sure you do it right next time.

Exhale through the right keeping the left closed. Repeat these 10 times.

CHAPTER 5 - MAKARASANA - PART A

Lie down flat on your back facing upwards. The hands will assume chin mudhra and need to be placed at 45 degrees to the body. The chin mudhra should be maintained throughout this part of makarasana.

1. Keep both legs together. Turn the head towards your right simultaneously turning your torso to the left side such that the feet touch the ground. Do not raise your shoulders. Do not bend your hand or knees. Return to the normal position. Now move your head towards your left while moving the torso towards the right and the right feet touching the floor. Repeat these 3 times.

- Bend your knees and bring your heels near your thigh. The knees should be kept together. Do the same twist as shown in section 1.1. Repeat these 3 times each side.
- Stretch both legs and keep the right foot over the left foot crossing the feet at the ankles. Do the same twist again as described in 1.1. Repeat these 3 times each side.
- Put the left foot over the right crossing at the ankles. Repeat the same twist 3 times each side.
- Keep the right ankle in between the big toe and 1st toe of the left foot.
 Repeat the same twist 3 times per side.
- Keep the left ankle in between the big toe and 1st toe of the right foot.
 Repeat the twist 3 times each side.
- 7. Raise your hands and legs above the ground. Stretch your right leg and right hand out while keeping the left leg and left hand inward. Simultaneously draw back your right hand and right foot while extending out your left hand and left foot. This motion is like a bicycle. Repeat these 10 times in and out.

Relax for a complete minute after completing these exercises.

MAKARASANA - PART B

This part of the makarasana is done lying on your stomach. Extend both your hands at 45 degrees to your body. Do not bend your hands and the palm should be facing down. Lift your face 1: from the ground.

- 1. Keep both the feet together. Turn your head to your right while twisting your body to your extreme right. The right palm should be touching the floor with some pressure. The left hand should be at 45 degrees to the body with the palm opening upwards. The right palm should be facing down. Make sure that the side of the legs are touching the floor. Do not lift up with your hands. Instead make your stomach do the job. Now turn your head to your left while twisting your body to the extreme left. This time the left palm should be touching the floor with some pressure. The right hand should be at 45 degrees to the body with the palm opening upwards. The left palm should be facing down. Make sure that the sides of the leg touch the floor while your head is 1" away from the floor. Repeat these 3 times on each side.
- Bend both legs at the knee and bring them close to your body. Repeat the same twist as shown in 1.1.
- Keep the right foot over the left crossing at the ankles. Repeat the same twist 3 times each side.
- Keep the left foot over the right foot crossing at the ankles. Repeat the twist 3 times each side.
- Keep the right foot in between the big toe and 1st toe of your left foot.

- Keep the left foot in between the big toe and the 1st toe of the right foot. DO the same twist 3 times each side.
- 7. Keep the arms in front of you with the palms facing down. Look at the center of the middle finger nails. Lift your hand 1" from the floor. Now turn your body from your waist to your right following your nails with the eyes. Lift your right leg towards the back. Turn your body from your waist to your left while following the nails with your eyes. Lift your left leg over your back. This movement resembles a crocodile.

Benefits:

1. Regulates the endocrine system, regulates blood circulation, menstrual system.

2. It also helps to cure diabetes, arthritis, sciatica, blood-pressure and spinal pain.

CHAPTER 6 - MASSAGE

1. Lie down fat on the floor facing upwards. Keep the whole body relaxed. You will stay in this position for the entire massage routine. Palm your right hand and keep it above the navel. Massage it clockwise 3 times. Make sure you apply pressure to the area. Also make sure that your palm should never leave the navel area. Repeat this counter clockwise 3 times and finally do it clockwise 3 times.

- Place your right hand over your left lung and massage it around it 3 times clockwise. Repeat these 3 times counter clockwise and finally finish it by doing it 3 times clockwise.
- 3. Place your left hand over the right lung and repeat the same massage technique described above. 3 times clockwise + 3 times counter clockwise + 3 times clockwise.
- 4. Fix the right thumb inside the right ear-pit and the left thumb inside the left ear-pit. Rotate and massage ears clockwise 3 times, counterclockwise 3 times and finish clockwise 3 times.
- Place the right thumb on the right temple and the left thumb on the left temple. Move both the thumbs clockwise 3 times, counter clockwise 3 times and finally clockwise 3 times.
- 6. Bring both hands together on your fore head. Massage the fore head and bring the hands over the eyes and finally on to your nose bridge with the little finger, followed by the ring finger, followed by the middle finger and completing it with the index finger. Pressure should be applied while massaging the forehead and nose bridge. Repeat these 3 times.
- Place the right palm on the right side of your face while placing the left on the left side. Massage over the cheeks, eyes and over the forehead. Repeat this 3 times.
- Massage your right ear lobes with your right hand while simultaneously massaging the left with your left hand. Repeat these 3 times.

CHAPTER 7A – ACU PRESSURE (14 POINTS)

- Lie down flat on your back. Bend your left hand at the elbow and cross it over your chest to reach your back. Use the first three fingers of the left hand to hold and press your spine in the upper back. This is point number Breathe normally for 7 times. Retain this position with your left hand throughout the entire acu-pressure routine. By keeping the spine pressed you are short circuiting the electrical energy at that point. The index finger is then used as an electrode to charge various points in the body.
- 2. Use your right-hand index finger as an electrode by closing the thumb and the three fingers over it. Keep the electrode (right index finger) 1" below the chest cavity. Keep pressing for 30 seconds or breathe normally 7 times. This is point number 2.
- Use the same electrode and place it 1" from the previous point on your chest cavity. This is point number 3. Breathe 7 times normally or hold for 30 seconds.
- Move the electrode 1" below point number 3 and hold it for 30 seconds. This is point number 4. The index finger should be at-least 1" above the navel.
- Put the index finger into the navel and pull it upwards at the 12^o clock position. This is point number 5. Keep it for 30 seconds or breathe 7 times normally.
- Place the right thumb in the center of the navel and push it downwards at the 6^o clock position. This is point number 6. Keep it in this position for 30 seconds.

- Use the index finger again and place it inside the navel. Pull it 45 degrees upwards to the right between the 10 and 11 clock-position. This is point number 7. Keep it in this position for 30 seconds.
- Use the index finger and place it inside the navel. Pull it 45 degrees upwards to the left between 1 and 2 clock-position. This is point number Keep it in this position for 30 seconds.
- Use the index finger and place it in the center of the navel. Push it 45 degrees downwards to your right between 7 and 8 clock-position. This is point number 9. Keep it in this position for 30 seconds.
- 10. Keep the index finger inside the navel and push it 45 degrees downwards to the left between the 4 and 5 clock-position. This is point number 10. Keep it in this position for 30 seconds.
- 11. Keep the index finger 1" below the center of the lowest rib on the right side. This is point number 11. Keep it in this position for 30 seconds.
- 12. Keep the index finger 1" below the center of the lowest rib on the left side.This is point number 12. Keep it in this position for 30 seconds.
- 13. Keep the right thumb 1" below the right extremity of the lowest rib (right side). This is the gall bladder point number 13. Keep it in this position for 30 seconds.
- 14. Keep your thumb inside the navel. Extend your middle finger diagonally downwards towards your left. Place the index finger where it lands on your groin. You can now remove the thumb and the middle finger. Keep the index finger on the groin position for 30 seconds. This is point number 14.

Benefits:

Acu-pressure is very good preventive care for heart ailments. It is very helpful in alleviating insomnia.

CHAPTER 7B – RELAXATION

Lie down flat on your back. Keep your legs 12" to 18" apart and fully relaxed. Close your eyes and start relaxing your body from the feet upwards. While you are relaxing your feet, you should be thinking nothing else other than your feet. While relaxing give auto suggestions like "I am relaxing my feet. Blood circulation is good, heat circulation is good, air-circulation is good, and energy circulation is good. I am getting sufficient strength in my feet as the life force enters my feet. My feet are completely relaxed now"

This auto suggestion note should be repeated as move upwards to the other parts of your body by substituting the feet with that part of the body. Relax your body in the following sequence:

- a. Relax the soul of your feet.
- b. Relax the legs, calf muscles.
- c. Relax the knees.
- d. Relax the thighs.
- e. Relax the abdomen, hip.
- f. Relax the stomach, intestine, kidney, liver, spleen....
- g. Relax the chest, heart, lungs.
- h. Relax the hand and arms.
- i. Relax the neck, throat, shoulders.

- j. Relax the face, eyes, nose, and ears.
- k. Relax the head.

Keep your eyes gently closed during the entire relaxation routine. Do not think of any other thing. Keep your mind free of all worries. Breathe in and out normally. Relax each part of the body for 1 minute. So, it will take 11 minutes to complete the relaxation. If you feel sleepy at the end of the relaxation, you may go to sleep for a few minutes. Feel the life force entering your body and completely purifying it all over. This controls your blood pressure and heart ailments.

MEDITATION

Sit in Sukhasana with both your hands in front of you and clasped together making sure your right thumb is over the left. Close your eyes and concentrate all your thoughts in the center of your forehead where the forehead meets your nose bridge. Say within yourself this prayer before you start your meditation:

- The atmosphere around me is being purified by the Divine Power (3 times)
- The Divine Power descends upon me and I am being purified (3 times)

"Obeisance to my Mother,

Obeisance to my Father,

Obeisance to my Guru/Teacher"

(Bring each one into your mental picture and prostrate before them by imagination)

Divine energy surrounds me as I sit here; I can feel the divine energy entering my body and soul and becoming one with it. May that divine energy be my friend, my protector and my guide during day and night, in all places and in all professions. Start your meditation and stay in this position for as long as you wish. After the meditation, rub both your hands together and run it through your face on the front side all the way to your toe. Run your hands over your face, head, back of the head, back all the way to your toe. Rub your left hand with your right hand, rub your right hand with your left hand. Bring both hands from the side to the top of your head and bring it in front of you in a prostrating position.

Repeat this in your mind:

- "By the grace of Divine Bliss, I will enjoy good health, long life, enough wealth, prosperity and peace". Say this auto suggestion 3 times.
- Bless your life partner completely (if you are married) by repeating the auto suggestion as mentioned in #1 using their name.
- 3. Bless your children, all your sons and daughters by repeating the auto suggestion mentioned above.
- 4. Bless your brothers and sisters in the same way.
- 5. Bless all your relatives, your uncles, aunts, cousins..... in the same way.
- 6. Bless all your near and dear friends the same way.
- Bless your enemy or miscreant or the one whom you don't like to associate with.
- 8. Bless your bosses, assistants, servants in your profession the same way.
- 9. Bless the wonderful house you live in the same way.
- 10. Bless the wonderful State, country/nation we live in the same way.

- 11. Bless all the wonderful leaders of this nation and nations all over the world the same way.
- 12. Bless the entire world, universe, and the world of humanity by saying:

"The entire world may enjoy prosperity, peace and happiness".

- 13. Conclude the meditation by saying mentally "Om Shanthi! Shanthi! Shanthi

Appendix C

a) How to prepare charged water?

Take 15gms of pure Gold (22 carat bangle is adequate), 30 gms of 99.9% pure silver and 60gms of 99.9% pure copper in a vessel. Take the required amount of water (tap or filtered) and boil it until the water reduces to the required amount. The charged water should be consumed within 24 hours of preparation to maximize its benefit.

b) What is Q-mix?

Leaves of Neem, Bilpatra and Tulsi is taken and naturally dried. Grind them in equal proportions to prepare the Q-mix powder. This mixture should be kept in a dry place and taken as needed.

c) How to prepare green juice?

Take greens of any time namely, spinach, collard greens, celery and blend them with water to prepare the juice. Care to be taken to wash the leaves prior to blending them to remove any contamination. Remove the pulp and consume the rest as green juice.

d) Simple Pranayam techniques

There are several pranayam techniques one can follow. However, we have listed these simple ones for your practice.

 (i) Sun Pranayam – Close the left nostril with your thumb and inhale from the right. While inhaling count to 10 and hold your breath for 20 counts. Exhale from the left nostril for 10 counts. In the beginning you can start this with 5 counts of inhaling, 10 counts of retention and 5 counts of exhaling. This can be increased to 10/20/10 with time. Repeat this cycle for 10 times. If you feel giddy or dizziness, stop immediately and drink a glass of water. Doing this pranayam increases heat in the body. You can do this when you are feeling cold or are sneezing.

- (ii) Moon Pranayam Close your right nostril with your thumb and inhale from the left nostril. While inhaling count to 10 and hold your breath for 20 counts. Exhale from the right nostril for 10 counts. In the beginning you can start this with 5 counts of inhaling, 10 counts of retention and 5 counts of exhaling. This can be increased to 10/20/10 with time. Repeat this cycle for 10 times. If you feel giddy or dizziness, stop immediately and drink a glass of water. This pranayam increases coolness in your body. Hence this can be used if you are suffering from fever, sunstroke.
- (iii) Balanced Pranayam Close the left nostril with your thumb and inhale from the right. While inhaling count to 10 and hold your breath for 20 counts. Exhale from the left nostril for 10 counts. Keeping your right nostril closed, inhale from the left nostril. While inhaling count to 10 and hold your breath for 20 counts. Exhale from the right nostril for 10 counts. This can be increased to 10/20/10 with time. Repeat this cycle for 10 times. If you feel giddy or dizziness, stop immediately and drink a glass of water.
- (iv) Kapalabathi Inhale and exhale very fast through the nostrils for 50 times. While doing this, you will need to sit up straight.
- (v) Bastrika Open your mouth and slowly inhale through it. Close your mouth and exhale through your nostrils. Repeat this for 15 times.
